ABOUT THE HOME

A large detached home in superb condition with the added benefit of an 11 metre balcony leading from the kitchen, with amazing far reaching views over central London & beyond.

Set back from the road behind the beautifully manicured front garden, this natural five bedroom property retains many original features including English oak parquet flooring & leaded doors.

Belltrees Grove is well positioned for local state schools & in the catchment area for the extremely popular St Julian's School & Bishop Thomas Grant school along with easy access to the many private schools in both Streatham & Dulwich. Commuters have easy access to an abundance of transport links including numerous bus routes to Balham & Brixton & local nearby main line stations with direct routes into London & the City. Within easy reach of Streatham's numerous amenities including many restaurants, shops, leisure facilities & close to the green open spaces & woodland of Streatham Common.
