ABOUT THE HOME

A substantial six bedroom detached family home on one of the most sought after roads in Streatham. The property has been transformed from an old bungalow to a three storey, modern home with a contemporary design boasting 4278 sqft of living space.

Ryecroft Road is considered to be one of the most desirable roads in the entirety of Streatham due to it's secluded nature and composition entirely of large, detached family homes. At the base of the road is a gated entrance to the top of Streatham Common giving residents direct access to Norwood Grove and The Rookery Gardens. There are a number of transport links to utilise including West Norwood, Streatham and a number of regular bus routes to Tooting Bec and Brixton. There are also a number of outstanding state and private schools located nearby and within commuting distance.

Total area (approx.): 397.5 sq. m (4,278.6 sq. ft)
(Including Garage / Excluding Eaves)
