DESCRIPTION

This Grade II listed cottage is believed to be mid 1500's in age and built at the same time as the church, more than likely for a member of the clergy. This would make the cottage the oldest home in Chipping Norton. The accommodation retains in large its original character, with original windows and stone floor. The view of St. Mary's church is impressive. The cottage is gas fired centrally heated. The accommodation is complimented by a compact but very welcoming courtyard garden to the front of the property and receives sun in the summer months, ideal for al fresco dining.
