Well maintained semi detached house in one of the more popular residential areas of Lossiemouth, one of Moray's beautiful coastal towns. Enjoying an elevated situation with outlook over the playing fields, this desirable property also has a terraced rear garden which can be accessed off North Covesea Terrace. (Historically, but now time expired, planning permission was granted for a garage and driveway).

More recently, the lounge and dining room has been altered by the addition of a partition wall to form a downstairs bedroom but this arrangement could easily be reversed if desired - according to the needs of the potential buyers.

With gas fired central heating and sealed unit double glazing, the accommodation currently comprises :- Entrance Hall, Bedroom, fitted Kitchen with Dining area, upper landing, 2 double Bedrooms and Shower Room. Externally there is a low maintenance front garden with 2 patio areas and terraced rear garden with stepped pathway up to North Covesea Terrace.

An early viewing of this good quality home is highly recommended.
