36 HIGH STREET, LAVENHAM, SUDBURY, SUFFOLK, CO10 9PY

Lavenham is regarded as one of the finest medieval settlements in Britain, with its wealth of period houses, famous church and of course the National Trust's Guildhall in the Market Place. Notwithstanding its fame, Lavenham is a thriving community with a good selection of shops and services. The market town of Sudbury is about 7 miles south and it provides a commuter rail link to London Liverpool Street. The cathedral town of Bury St Edmunds is about 12 miles north.

An extremely well-presented and characterful two-bedroom cottage in the very centre of one of East Anglia's most highly regarded and picturesque villages which has recently undergone a thorough programme of refurbishment and improvement. The property has been successfully run as a holiday let by the current owners and therefore provides an immediate means of income for investors. The property contains accommodation which includes an open plan sitting/dining room with a multifuel burning stove, a high-quality kitchen and a ground floor cloakroom. Upstairs are two well-proportioned double bedrooms and a shower room. There is the further benefit of a fully private enclosed west facing rear garden. NO ONWARD CHAIN.
