WILD CHERRY HOUSE, THE STREET, FOXEARTH, SUDBURY, CO10 7JG

Foxearth is a highly sought-after village characterised by its variety of period buildings and local amenities include a fine parish church. The market town of Sudbury lies about 4 miles south and its comprehensive amenities include a commuter rail link to London Liverpool Street. Cambridge is about 40 minutes drive away. The historic village of Long Melford (2 miles) provides a primary school, doctor's surgery, local shopping and specialist shops, antiques galleries, pubs, tea rooms and restaurants.

An elegant Victorian semi-detached village house which has undergone significant refurbishment and improvements in recent years. The property contains charming and characterful accommodation particularly well-suited to modern living with a range of high-end fixtures and fittings. Accommodation includes a sitting room, dining room, kitchen with utility cupboard off and a ground floor study and cloakroom. Upstairs are three bedrooms (the master with en-suite) and a family bathroom. Outside the property benefits from a private driveway with EV charging point, providing off-road parking enclosed by a hardwood gate whilst to the rear is a private enclosed south-west facing garden with terracing and expanse of lawn.
