Fey Cottage, 14 Westgate Street, Long Melford, Sudbury, Suffolk, CO10 9DS

Long Melford is a fine village characterised by its wide variety of architecture, shops and famous green dominated by the Holy Trinity Church (once described as the most moving parish church in England). The nearby market towns of Sudbury (3 miles) and the cathedral town of Bury St Edmunds (15 miles) offer a comprehensive range of facilities, the former with a commuter rail link to London Liverpool Street (90 minutes).

An exceptional Grade II listed cottage occupying a highly desirable position a short walk from the village green. The property has been sympathetically restored and boasts a wealth of character features including inglenook fireplaces, leaded windows, herringbone brick flooring and exposed timbers. There are two bedrooms, a charming sitting room, well-appointed kitchen and a family bathroom. The property has the additional benefit of a south-west facing rear garden and ample unallocated off-road parking.

A charming character cottage with a south-west facing rear garden a short walk from village amenities.

Outside

There is ample unallocated OFF-ROAD PARKING to the front of the cottage. To the rear is an attractive and particularly generous landscaped garden which is primarily SOUTH-WEST facing and therefore receives an abundance of sunlight, particularly in the afternoon/evening.

Immediately adjacent to the property is a paved terrace with ample space for seating. A stone path leads to the rear of the garden which is bordered by an array of well-stocked beds with a colourful variety of flowers, plants and trees. A further paved terrace is situated at the rear of the garden ideally placed to take full advantage of far-reaching countryside views.
