Lavenham is regarded as one of the finest medieval settlements in Britain, with its wealth of period houses, famous church and of course the National Trust's Guildhall in the Market Place. Notwithstanding its fame, Lavenham is a thriving community with a good selection of shops and services. The market town of Sudbury is about 7 miles south and it provides a commuter rail link to London Liverpool Street. The cathedral town of Bury St Edmunds is about 12 miles north.

Outside, in front of the property is a driveway which provides off-road parking for at least two vehicles and in turns leads onto a garage/area of storage, while to the rear is a sunny private enclosed garden with an outstanding view of the village church. NO ONWARD CHAIN.
