The Property

This property is all about lifestyle and the impressive yet easy onward years you will enjoy. Having been renovated, the property offers easy and modern décor which can be touched to reflect your tastes. The entrance is spacious and clear that the property is full of natural light. To one side, the reception rooms, to the other the bedrooms. Three bedrooms, large lounge, two bath/shower rooms and an open plan family room which will encourage the family to visit. The property feels sociable yet elegant; essentially homely but comfortable.

Outdoor Space

The large driveway is low maintenance and nearly new, perfect for space to park and turn. The rear garden is ready to be designed. As is, it offers lawn, patio and new fencing. Not too much, not too small but correctly proportioned for privacy and everyday living.

The Area

Whilst it's expected that the buyer will know such a prestigious location, we would like to spend a few moments to say, you will enjoy being within 5 mins of a central London train service, a Nuffield health center and a Village high-street packed with restaurants and shops. Within 15 mins you have miles of parkland, two membership golf courses, tennis courts and more health centres. Expect an area of community, aspiration and high standards of living on the outskirts of Central London. Should you be of an age you will also enjoy the freedom pass to travel to and fro from Central London free.

Vendor Thoughts

The seller has always had an eye for design and having lived in the area for many years, raising a family and continuing to have an elderly parent nearby, the plan was always to seek the very best location and then create a home for the generations. "The build took over a year and includes three extensions. We wanted to aim for the best quality fixtures, the change from then to now has been dramatic"

Why You Should View

As a testament to the area, sellers commonly reside in their family homes for a generation. It can be an anxious move after such a long time, the answer is to buy smartly with known quantities and low maintenance bricks and mortar. The bungalow combines the space needed to encourage visitors and the ease in which to host them. I hope to travel freely at will and this property also enables an easy option to do so with travel on your doorstep and also modern features which can be left without fear.
