ST. WINIFREDS ROAD TEDDINGTON, TW11

ASKING PRICE: £1,850,000

This fantastic 1930s detached house is new to the market. The house holds a lot of its original features but also has been updated in places and is in great condition throughout. The property benefits from a very large west facing garden at the rear and off street parking for multiple cars at the front. The property is bright throughout and offers great potential to extend. (STP)

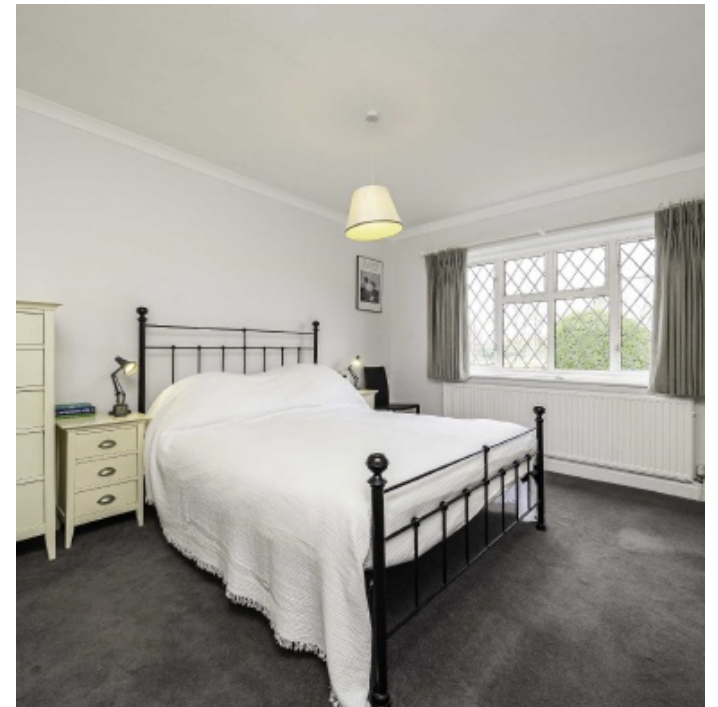

On the ground floor you will find a large entrance hall, open plan kitchen, two reception rooms, one with an open fireplace and exposed beams. The other reception, at the rear of the house features a log burner and original french doors leading out onto the garden patio. There is also a shower room down stairs and the garage has been converted into an office. On the second floor there are five bedrooms. The master has an en-suite shower room and there is also a family bathroom.

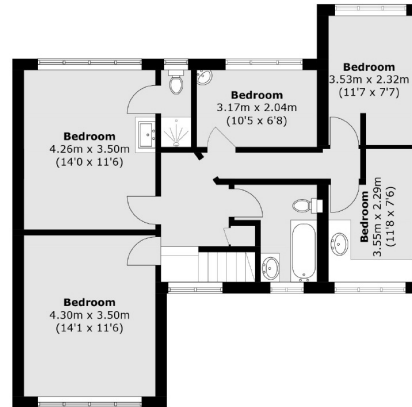

St. Winifreds Road is situated close to popular schools and is almost equidistant from both Teddington and Hampton Wick station. The extensive shopping centre of Kingston is just over 1 mile away and Teddington High Street is closer to hand.
