THE PROPERTY

Malt Cottage is Grade II listed and is believed to date from 1780. It enjoys fantastic views over unspoilt farmland and is tastefully presented with well-proportioned and light rooms. There is a dining room with fireplace, sitting room with woodburning stove with steps leading down to a snug/cinema room. There is planning permission to add a conservatory off the snug. There is a study, shower room and a well-appointed kitchen with an Aga and French windows leading onto a sheltered terrace with wonderful rural views.

There are two staircases, one leading to a bedroom, the other providing access to a bathroom and two further bedrooms. A fourth bedroom is accessed through the main bedroom and could be used as a nursery, dressing room or converted into a bathroom, subject to planning. A walk-in wardrobe on the landing has potential to be converted into a small bedroom or further bathroom, subject to planning.

The property is approached via a gravel drive leading to a pretty garden which mainly laid to lawn with a variety of mature trees, shrubs, rose garden and fruit cage. There are a number of sheltered terraces and deck areas that provide wonderful outdoor entertaining space. There is ample space to create garaging, subject to planning.
