Bryn Derwen

Llanrwst LL26 0PT

£1,950,000

Bryn Derwen is set in 14 acres provides a wonderful opportunity to acquire a period residence for private occupation or as a unique business venue and with consent for use as a hotel and restaurant.

Constructed in approximately 1880 in an Italianate Victorian style the airy and light accommodation has been tastefully extended, decorated and well-appointed for its current use as a leading and renowned art gallery Ffin Y Parc. The space includes a coffee shop with a dining conservatory affording far-reaching views across the valley. The grounds include natural lawned areas and the tree-lined drive is underplanted with daffodils and snowdrops in the spring. The walled garden contains an abundance of soft fruit bushes and fruit trees and there are 7 acres of woodland within the estate.

The property occupies a prominent position in the Conwy Valley, on the A470, within three miles of Betws y Coed and within the boundaries of Snowdonia National Park. The A55 Expressway is within 25 minutes driving distance linking to the Northwest Motorway Network.

The property also affords three self-contained cottages furnished to a high standard and providing a valuable income stream throughout the seasons. There are seven letting bedrooms, six with en-suite facilities and there is spacious owners' accommodation and further outbuildings with scope for development.

The accommodation is heated by a biomass system which, with subsidies, provides heating and hot water at minimal cost.

Bryn Derwen offers a rare opportunity to secure a most individual and distinctive country house or hospitality business in the beautiful rural setting of the Conwy Valley.

Location

Bryn Derwen lies approximately 1 mile south of the traditional market town of Llanrwst which provides a range of amenities. Betws Y Coed lies a further 3 miles south with a range of tourist shops, cafes and extremely popular with walkers and climbers. The property is also ideally located within the Snowdonia National Park with selection of outdoor activities which includes Zip World and Snowdonia Adventure Park.
