Garden Chalet

Garden Chalet (former wage house for Siabod Mine). This is an interesting small detached cottage which in the past has been occupied and used as living accommodation, however it is now vacant and is in the process of being renovated. A mezzanine floor has been built, but the property remains unfinished. This was the former wage house for Siabod Mine. With a small investment it would provide additional accommodation, or a self contained unit (subject to any necessary consent).

Outside

Small forecourt garden adjacent to the main road, side hard standing providing off road parking, level side garden with sheds and patio area, steps leading to a large terrace garden at rear. Climb the few slate steps at the rear to the terraced garden and you will benefit from views extending over towards Moel Siabod and the surrounding countryside. Small kitchen garden area and stone built store shed.

Services

Mains water, electricity and drainage are connected to the property, multi fuel stove provides for central heating system, immersion for hot water.
