£795,000

An impressive former Rectory set in two and a half acres of private grounds, in an idyllic edge of village setting within the Snowdonia National Park.

VIEWING HIGHLY RECOMMENDED.

Dating back to 1862, Penmachno Hall is a substantial double fronted character country house, surrounded by beautiful countryside on the edge of Penmachno Village on the approach to the largely undiscovered Glasgwm Valley. A beautifully presented home, providing versatile accommodation, either as a large family home, country guest house, or luxury self catering accommodation. In addition to the main house, there is a 2 bedroom detached cottage - The Coach House a self contained luxury holiday let providing additional income source. The main house offers superb well appointed accommodation with an impressive hallway, 3 reception rooms with feature fireplaces, high ceilings, garden room and a superb dining kitchen with handmade units and an 'AGA' cooking range. The grounds are beautiful, comprising spinney and landscaped gardens, fronted by the Glasgwm river. From the doorstep, there is access to wonderful forest walks, secret waterfalls and a popular pony trekking centre.

Location

In the heart of Snowdonia within 7 miles of the inland tourist resort of Betws y Coed. The area is renowned for its natural beauty and wonderful outdoor activities to include bike trails, Zip World, Go Below and Snowdonia Adventure Park.
