The National Trust

Swan Barn Cottage is a detached 2 bedroom cottage located within walking distance of Haslemere town centre and a mainline train station with direct links to London. Haslemere is a historic charming market town located in the very south of Surrey. Surrounded by stunning countryside and is regarded as one of the gems of the Surrey Hills National Landscape.

About Swan Barn Farm

The hidden gem of Swan Barn Farm nestles behind Haslemere's bustling high street. It is the gateway to some of Surrey and Sussex's finest countryside.

You can enjoy a picnic and catch a glimpse of views down into pastures cloaked by a wooded valley. For keen walkers there are three major walks nearby. The first is the 64-mile-long Serpent Trail, which starts here. It was designed to showcase some of the finest views and breathtaking countryside in the south east. The footpaths also link to the nearby Sussex Border Path and Greensand Way.

Swan Barn Farm has a specially designed eco-house called Speckled Wood which was built with locally sourced, sustainable wood from the Black Down Estate. Next to it is Hunter Basecamp, which is used for a variety of events and volunteer activities.

Important info: The buildings are not open to visitors but you're welcome to view them from the outside from the public footpath and the orchard.

The National Trust is Europe's leading conservation charity, and is committed to preserving special places for ever, for everyone. The Trust depends on the income it generates from its rental properties, and it could not deliver its core objectives without the support of its thousands of tenants and volunteers.

The successful tenant will receive Tenant-Custodian membership of the National Trust which entitles them to free access to Trust properties across England and Wales.

National Trust tenants

As a tenant of the National Trust, you'll receive a free 'tenant pass' throughout the duration of your tenancy. This means that you, your children (under 18) and one other adult can visit the places we care for, for free. You'll also receive a National Trust Handbook to help you plan your days out, a copy of the National Trust Magazine and a free parking permit for when you visit us.

It's important to know that the income we make from the places we let plays an essential role in funding our conservation work. It protects nature, beauty and history for generations to come.

We're keen to build long-lasting tenant-landlord relationships that bring stability and longevity to your plans and ours. We know that tenants have high expectations of their National Trust rental property, but we also expect them to look after the property as if we were looking after it. That's because being a National Trust tenant means looking after a piece of history. It means being a custodian of a building. And it means helping to protect it for the next generation.
