The Location

Rose Cottage is a Grade II listed, 17th century, three-bedroom cottage in the village of Luccombe, three miles from Porlock and five miles west of Minehead.

The National Trust

The National Trust is Europe's leading conservation charity, and is committed to preserving special places for ever, for everyone. The Trust depends on the income it generates from its rental properties and could not deliver its core objectives without the support of its thousands of tenants and volunteers.

This property is part of The Holnicote Estate that came to the Trust in 1944. Set in Exmoor National Park the Estate covers 5,042 hectares, much of which is open access and can be explored at will. There are approximately 170 tenanted cottages and 14 tenanted farms on the Estate.

GDPR

Our full Privacy Policy can be found online at <https://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/features/privacy-policy>

As a Tenant of the National Trust, we will use your personal information to fulfil our contract with you. This may include, but is not limited to, sending you rental invoices, tenant and landlord correspondence, and contacting you with information about issues or activities relating to your lease. We will not pass your details to third parties except where you have provided explicit consent or where we need to do so in order to fulfil our legal or landlord responsibilities, for example if we need to send your address or contact details to a maintenance contractor so they can carry out repairs, or where we are required to liaise with Council Tax departments or Utilities companies at the beginning or end of a Tenancy.
