Just moments from the golden sands of Ryde and Appley beaches, this stunning four-bedroom townhouse presents a rare opportunity for luxurious coastal living. Set across three beautifully designed floors, the home combines high-end finishes with thoughtful design, offering uninterrupted sea views from its upper levels and effortless access to local amenities, transport links, and mainland ferries—ideal for families, professionals, or those seeking an elegant island retreat.

The ground floor features an inviting open-plan layout that seamlessly integrates a modern kitchen, dining, and living space. Equipped with integrated appliances, sleek cabinetry, and bi-folding doors opening onto a sun-drenched south-facing courtyard garden, the space is perfect for both entertaining and everyday living. Underfloor heating and oak flooring add warmth and sophistication throughout.

Upstairs, the first floor hosts two generous double bedrooms with built-in wardrobes and TV points, while the front room boasts stunning Solent views. A stylish family bathroom with modern fixtures completes the floor. The top level offers two more spacious doubles—one with panoramic sea views—and a contemporary shower room with a double walk-in enclosure.

Additional highlights include gas central heating, a private car port for off-road parking, and exceptional energy efficiency. The low-maintenance garden is ideal for alfresco dining or relaxing in privacy.

With Ryde's shops, restaurants, and transport options just a short walk away, this impeccable property is a true lifestyle choice—perfect as a permanent residence, holiday home, or investment. Experience modern coastal living at its finest.

What the owner says...

"Ryde, located on the Isle of Wight, offers a delightful blend of great restaurants, independent shops, and charming cafes, especially along Union Street and the High Street. These areas are perfect for exploring locally-owned boutiques and enjoying unique, handmade products. The vibrant dining scene includes a variety of eateries, from contemporary bistros to traditional British pubs, ensuring that there's something for every taste. Visitors can also indulge in a relaxing cafe culture, with many spots offering stunning views of the coastline."
