External

The property enjoys a high degree of privacy within extensive grounds which wrap around the bungalow with mature and well manicured gardens. To the front is a wide area of lawn bounded by shrub and flower beds with a substantial hedge screen giving privacy. To the side is a further garden area which bounds the original drive access to the former garage and, again, has a wealth of mature plants and lawn. To the left side is a footway with rockery leading to the rear where there is a wide space well stocked with shrubs and plants and a lovely, secluded, patio for those chill out evenings in privacy. To the far side of the property is a produce area, well stocked with veg plants, garden shed and greenhouse, a further lawn which leads down to the driveway. The drive comes off Carleton Gate and offers parking space and leads to a detached double garage which is two storey and has power, light and water, an independent alarm system and loft ladder access to the first floor. This could easily convert to a separate annexe if required (subject to planning).
