THE PROPERTY

Trewin was built originally as a bungalow having since been extensively extended to incorporate a first floor now providing some 2,300 sq ft of living accommodation.

ACCOMMODATION

Built principally with colour washed rendered elevations under a tiled roof benefiting from an oil fired central heating system and double glazed units to most openings.

There is a sizeable timber deck balcony to the rear offering an elevated viewing point over the established rear garden. To the front of the property is an initial paved and Tarmac driveway leading to a detached garage and gravel section which provides extensive parking.

The site extends to 0.58 acre (0.235 ha) and is relatively level with the majority of gardens lying to the rear and laid principally to lawn.

Within the ground is an impressive fishpond alongside a greenhouse, summerhouse and garden shed. Other benefits include en-suite facility to both the principal and guest bedrooms and a woodburning stove in the sitting room.

A particular feature is the high degree of privacy that is appreciated from the plot, especially the rear garden.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached through timber gates leading to driveway and:

SITUATION

The property is set off Crewkerne Road within the favoured Raymonds Hill area, approximately 3 miles from Axminster town centre. The famous Jurassic coastline of Lyme Regis (4 miles) is a most popular and picturesque coastal town noted for its attractive period buildings, the famous centuries-old Cobb and harbour. In the town is an excellent selection of facilities including many independent shops, and a number of restaurants and hotels, together with theatre and various museums. A short walk from the high street is the charming award-winning sandy beach, ideal for families, the harbour, popular with anglers and those keen on deep sea fishing trips, the sailing and power boat clubs. Axminster is a country town on the eastern fringes of Devon, close to the border with Dorset. It offers a selection of shops including two supermarkets, churches and a main line railway station on the Exeter to Waterloo line. Hugh Fernley Whittingstall's River Cottage HQ is located in the nearby Trinity Hill area.

GARDENS

The total plot extends to approximately 0.58 acre (0.235 ha) forming a relatively level site with the majority of garden lying to the rear. There are established herbaceous borders and a fishpond. The timber deck balcony can be accessed from the kitchen and enjoys steps down to the garden. As previously mentioned, there is a high degree of privacy. There is also a detached garage with an up and over door.
