THE PROPERTY

A desirable two-bedroom coach house with accommodation set over two floors and the added benefit of your own private garden and a garage.

ACCOMMODATION

This attractive coach house was constructed by Wainhomes in 2010 and is built of stone fronted elevations under a tiled roof with double glazed windows, mains wired smoke alarms and a gas fired central heating system. This particular style of coach house is unusual in its design with the living accommodation being set over two floors. On entering the property, you are greeted with a spacious entrance hall with a staircase rising to the first floor. On the ground floor is the second bedroom that features a storage cupboard and double doors that open out onto the garden. There is also a useful downstairs cloakroom. To the first floor is a large open plan main reception room that has a fitted kitchen with ample wall and base units, built in oven and hob with space for a fridge freezer. This room is exceptionally light and airy with windows to three aspects. The master bedroom is well proportioned and has an adjoining Jack and Jill bathroom that can be accessed from either the bedroom or inner hallway.

OUTSIDE

The garden benefits from a seating area, one on an elevated patio, and the other beneath the staircase, which leads onto the lawn. There is useful undercroft storage, with power and light, and an outside tap. Maximum use has been made of the available area, to provide a practical and enjoyable space.

SITUATION

The property is situated on Flax Meadow Lane and is part of a modern housing development less than a mile from the town centre of Axminster. The market town of Axminster is a bustling market town on the Eastern fringes of Devon, close to the border with West Dorset and South Somerset. The beautiful Axe valley with its renowned bird sanctuary reaches the sea at Seaton (6 miles) and the famed beaches of the World Heritage Jurassic Coast and the resort of Lyme Regis are at a similar distance.
