SITUATION

Wood Barton is situated on the outskirts of the peaceful rural, countryside village of Woodleigh surrounded by the rolling hills of the South Hams and enjoying a large number of walks straight from the front door including easy access to Century Wood and Watkins Wood (founder of the Woodland Trust) in addition to the beautiful Primrose Way through the Avon Valley Woods.

The Monastery is steeped in history, having been built by Trappist Monks in the early 1900s and transformed into eight exceptional residences each one having been individually designed and finished to an exceptionally high standard. Being located in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty the Monastery enjoys a wonderful sense of tranquility. The surrounding private country estate of 80 acres provides a haven for wildlife and benefits from access to the beautiful River Avon. Residents have privileged right to wander freely exploring the woods and meadows, fish on the River and use the tennis court plus the indoor 12 metre swimming pool, sauna, steam room, Jacuzzi, gyms and changing rooms located in the properties former chapel.

The market town of Kingsbridge is some 6 miles to the South and provides an extensive range of shops, services including a leisure centre and library. It is also within the catchment area for the Kingsbridge community college and a bus stops outside the property for picking up of children. The sailing meccas of Salcombe & Dartmouth are within easy reach as are the estuaries and beaches for which the South Hams are famous. Although deep in the heart of the South Hams, communications are good with the A38 dual-carriageway within 8 miles providing fast access to Plymouth and the M5 at Exeter. An inter-city rail service is available from Totnes, some 8 miles away and both Exeter and Plymouth are within easy reach and offer a wider range of leisure, commercial, retail and business opportunities.
