SITUATION

Slapton is considered to be one of the prettiest and most desirable villages in the South Hams. Almost equal distance between Kingsbridge and Dartmouth, the village has a thriving local community, two excellent pubs, a well-stocked general store, village hall, chapel and 13th century church. It is just a few minute' walk from a 3-mile long beach and is also known for the National Nature Reserve at Slapton Ley which is a Site of Special Scientific Interest. The ley is located on the edge of the village and is the largest freshwater lake in the south west of England.
