SITUATION

West Charleton is a popular village with its own Primary School, pub and church. The village is also noted for its Nature Reserve, which extends to over 40 acres and offers sanctuary to many species of birds and other wildlife whilst Bowcombe Creek, with its slipway and mooring facilities, lies just half a mile or so to the west of the village.

The market town of Kingsbridge is just over a mile away and offers an excellent range of shops, local services and facilities which include a Sports Centre, primary school and Kingsbridge Community College, health centre, cottage hospital and cinema.

There are many places of outstanding natural beauty close by, including Thurlestone, Bigbury and Hope Cove, whilst Salcombe, Devon's Southernmost town, is some 6 miles distant. A veritable mecca for yachting, angling and water-sports, Salcombe has many quality shops, boutiques and eateries as well as lovely sandy beaches and spectacular coastal path.
