SITUATION

The property is situated in an elevated position, within the Exmoor National Park, well located on the eastern side of the town within walking distance of the centre. Dulverton offers a variety of shops, a post office, a chemist, doctors, veterinary and dental surgeries, library, primary school and three churches. There are also good recreational facilities.

Tiverton, which is 14 miles away, offers further shopping and entertainment facilities and the well-known Blundells School together with easy access to the M5 and mainline railway station at Tiverton Parkway. The property is ideally located to take advantage of the walking and riding on the wonderful heather and gorse clad moorland slopes and the beautiful river valleys. Haddon Hill and Wimbleball Lake are also just a few miles away and offer riding, walking, sailing and fishing as well as many other recreational pursuits. North Devon coastline is within easy reach and has an excellent range of beaches from which to enjoy numerous water sports.

DESCRIPTION

Built in 1999, the property is a delightful spacious detached home with far reaching southerly views over the Barle Valley and beyond. It is on a small and select development, which has been very carefully designed to blend with the adjoining countryside and parkland. The house is beautifully presented throughout to a high standard and offers spacious and bright accommodation. The house benefits from its surrounding gardens, seating areas with lovely far reaching views and a generous double garage.

ACCOMMODATION

The front door leads into the central hall with access to the sitting room and the master bedroom and steps up to the upper level. The sitting room is a good size with a fireplace inset with a Stovax fire and enjoys wonderful far reaching views. The master bedroom also enjoying lovely views is a large double room with two fitted wardrobes and an en suite shower room.

On the upper level the kitchen is beautifully appointed with a range of wall and base units, granite worktops, wooden flooring, integral oven, hob, dishwasher fridge and freezer. The conservatory with wooden flooring, under floor heating, a freestanding double kitchen unit with space for a tumble dryer and glazed doors onto the patio is a lovely room that can either be used as a dining area or somewhere peaceful to sit in and enjoy the views of the garden from. There are two further double bedrooms with fitted cupboards, both overlooking the rear garden, a well-appointed family bathroom and an airing cupboard.

OUTSIDE

To the front is a driveway with parking for two cars and access to the double garage. There is also an area of garden either side of the driveway and a terrace which is a perfect spot to enjoy the sun and views. Th rear garden is terraced mainly laid to lawn, shrubs and flower borders and a patio. Steps lead up to the upper level where one can sit and enjoy the wonderful views over towards the Barle Valley.
