SITUATION

The property is located in central Dulverton town position within the Exmoor National Park and Conservation area. Dulverton nestles in the Barle River valley enjoying many riverside walks and is known as The Gateway to Exmoor. The town has a strong community and provides good day-to-day shopping together with two churches, post office, chemist, medical, dental and veterinary surgeries and a well-supported town hall. In addition, there are good restaurants and recreational facilities including squash courts, all-weather tennis courts, football and cricket pitches.

Tiverton (14 miles) offers further shopping and entertainment facilities and the well-known Blundells School together with easy access to the M5 and mainline railway station at Tiverton Parkway. The county town of Taunton is 26 miles away. The university and cathedral city of Exeter (29 miles south) boasts a wealth of shopping, recreational and leisure facilities. To the east of the city, Exeter Airport offers national and international flights.

Situated within the Exmoor National Park, the property is ideally located to take advantage of the walking and riding on the wonderful heather and gorse clad moorland slopes and the beautiful river valleys. The North Devon coastline has an excellent range of beaches from which to enjoy numerous water sports, whilst Wimbleball Lake is just 6 miles away.

DESCRIPTION

1, Guildhall Terrace is a two bedroom Victorian end terrace townhouse built in 1900. These attractive properties rarely come on to the market due to their convenient position in the town and are much sought after.

ACCOMMODATION

A gate from the lane leads to the easily maintained front garden and entrance porch into the hallway. The living room has a fireplace with log burning stove and a sash window over looking the front garden. At the end of the living room provides access into the kitchen at the rear of the property. The modern kitchen is light and spacious with a south facing aspect, with ample spaces for appliances. There is also a downstairs cloakroom adjacent to the kitchen. The two double bedrooms are light with large sash windows and built in wardrobes. The family bathroom has a bath with overhead shower and there is also a WC and wash basin. To the side of the property there is a small seating area, with raised beds planted with shrubs to the side and rear.
