Situation

5 Bee Farm Mews occupies a commanding position and enjoys a southerly aspect, set towards the North-Western edge of the market town of South Molton. Situated at the heart of North Devon, South Molton is known as the 'Gateway to Exmoor'. To the unfamiliar, North Devon is an exceptionally unspoilt part of the county and widely known for its stunning scenery and natural 'Picture Postcard' beauty. The region is not only renowned for its outstanding and award-winning beaches with their vast expanses of golden sands but also for its plethora of enchanting and quaint villages, lush, rolling countryside and the rugged, uncompromising beauty of Exmoor National Park and its dramatic coastline.

The market town of South Molton offers a comprehensive range of amenities, including schooling from nursery to secondary level, Sainsbury's supermarket, Post Office, banking facilities, pubs, cafes and an abundance of independent and artisan shops. The town bustles when the 'national award winning', popular twice weekly pannier and weekly stock markets take place.

The A361 bypasses the town and provides brisk passage to Barnstaple and the North Devon coast to the west and the M5 and Tiverton Parkway train station (London Paddington 1h 57m) to the east.

A popular retreat, located a few miles south of the town is the; 'Mole Resort', with pool/spa, gym and leisure facilities, appetites can be indulged at the 'Library Bar', 'Cellars Pub' or 'The Devon View Restaurant', accommodation is available in either: 'The Manor House', an 'Estate Room' or a choice of 58 luxury lodges.

Description

Sitting proudly at the head of a new and exclusive development, 5 Bee Farm Mews is an iconic property within South Molton. Built at the turn of Victorian era in 1837, the property was known as the 'new South Molton Union workhouse' but more commonly and affectionately known as the home of 'Quince Honey Farm' (1978-2019). The property forms part of the 'South Molton Heritage Trail', is steeped in local history and is woven into the fabric of the town. Since 2020 the house has undergone a total renovation and sympathetic remodelling, all overseen by the current owners. No expense has been spared with the renovations; the blend of high-quality materials, stylish fixtures/fittings and a contemporary colour palette, have created a chic and sophisticated family home, effortlessly marrying the accommodation together.

To the owners delight and as a fitting compliment to their exceptional, meticulous and sympathetic renovation, 5 Bee Farm Mews was selected above its peers and featured in 'Devon Life' magazine. The 5-page article featuring in the home and lifestyle section, is a perfect commemoration to its past and celebration of its future.

This exceptional family home, with four bedrooms and a plethora of reception space is complemented by well-kept gardens and parking. the house offers further scope for improvement, with the renovation of the lower ground floor, potentially providing a further 1,000 sq ft of accommodation (stp). The property is of stone construction beneath a slate roof and has the benefit of a Grade II listing.
