DESCRIPTION

A very desirable semi detached property located in this sought after area of town. Built in the 1930's and one of just four in the row, these rarely come to market and as such, we highly recommend a viewing to appreciate all that the home entails. There are some lovely features including the original doors which really add to the charm.

In brief, the property comprises Entrance Hallway, new Kitchen, large Sitting Room, Dining Room, Utility, Wc/Shower Room, Three Bedrooms, new Bathroom, attractive Gardens and ample Parking.

ACCOMMODATION

Side entrance porch to front door and attractive entrance hallway with doors to all principal rooms. Attractive, non slip wood grain vinyl flooring spans the ground floor; no thresholds means the flooring flows continuously so very practical. Stairs lead to the first floor. An extension to the rear now provides a generous sitting room with large patio doors overlooking the garden and a window to the side. The original brick built fireplace, with oak mantle and woodburning stove adorns one corner. Opening to the newly fitted kitchen, handcrafted with solid bespoke cabinetry by Foremost Kitchens of Wiveliscombe, with white units topped with elegant grey granite work surfaces and upstands and brushed stainless steel furniture. 1½ bowl sink, quality integrated Neff appliances including double oven, microwave/combi, warming drawer. There is also integrated dishwasher and fridge-freezer. Door from hallway into dining room, dual aspect room, fireplace with oak lintel. Double doors out to the garden and glazed patio doors into the utility; presently used as a home salon, there is plumbing and space for laundry appliances, storage and access to the WC and shower room. Also door to the front aspect.

Upstairs the galleried landing gives access to two double bedrooms and one single. The master is dual aspect and has lovely views towards the Monument and Blackdown Hills. Bedroom two has the same aspect to the rear, whilst bedroom three is to the front with dual windows to the front and side. The newly fitted family bathroom has a classic, but modern, white suite of WC, bathtub with shower over and hand basin set in a vanity unit is complimented by grey tiles marbled with a hint of bronze.
