SITUATION AND AMENITIES

The location is excellent, being only a two hundred metres from the very heart of the town centre and High Street, yet enjoying this lovely, riverside setting. All the town's amenities are within easy level walking distance, being located just off the Square. The Bus Station is not far, and there is a branch line railway station providing a service to Exeter, where the main intercity service can be joined. Barnstaple is regarded as North Devon's regional centre and as such, houses the area's main business, commercial, leisure and shopping venues, including the renowned Pannier Market. At Barnstaple, there is access via the A361 North Devon Link Road to Junction 27 of the M5 Motorway at Tiverton, where Tiverton Parkway also provides rail access to London (Paddington) in about 2 hours. The property is within about half an hour's drive of the safe, sandy, surfing beaches of Croyde, Putsborough, Saunton (also with its' sought after golf club) and Woolacombe. Exmoor not much further away, as is the Cornish border. There is access nearby to the Tarka Trail, ideal for both cyclists and walkers alike. We understand that the ever-changing views over the River Taw include some wonderful sunsets.

DESCRIPTION

A quite fabulous Georgian Grade II listed property set in the very heart of Barnstaple's thriving town centre. Enjoying the most wonderful riverside views to the front of the building and located just off The Square, Queen Anne House boasts well over 7,000 square feet in total. Some stunning period features of the property are displayed throughout, including some beautiful decorative work to the high ceilings, stained glass windows, large open rooms and wonderful views from the front facing apartments. Refurbishment is required in part of the building which could bring the property to a more modern specification.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The building has all mains services connected, although gas is not installed at each individual apartment. Long standing and reliable tenants are in situ in each apartment and the offices within The Stables are also let out commercially. The building is offered for sale as a whole only and would provide a healthy income for a landlord/lady - if you would like further detail of the income potential, please contact our office. There will be no onward chain following the sale of Queen Anne House. The apartments are all rated as Council Tax Band A, Business Rates Rateable Value of £4,600.

OUTSIDE

To the front of the property, there is a small low maintenance area of garden with a seating area that is adjoining flat four, separated from the roadside by a tall hedgerow for privacy. A partly cobbled and paved driveway leads under an arch underneath Queen Anne House and through to a courtyard area at the rear. This then presents access to each of the apartments as well as a detached single garage which is connected to power and light. There are also steps leading down from the courtyard to a cellar. Two deceptively large storage areas assigned to flats two and four are also accessed from the courtyard. The garden itself is immaculately maintained it is currently provided as a communal space, available for use by the tenants in all the flats in Queen Anne House. Beyond the garage which has an up and over door, light and power, there is a lawned area flowing through to areas of seating, creating a wonderfully sociable space. The flower beds are planted with a variety of well established shrubs plants and small trees, the garden is quite the 'hidden gem' in the town centre of Barnstaple.
