SITUATION AND AMENITIES

Middle Marwood is a timeless and tranquil hamlet lying about four miles to the North of Barnstaple. Marwood parish includes several hamlets and villages, steeped in history and understood to date back to the Saxon and Medieval period with mentions in the Domesday book. Within the parish there is a local Inn, Marwood primary school, several churches and village halls. Also nearby is the renowned 103 acre Broomhill Estate, boasting luxury hotel, sculpture gardens with restaurant that holds regular events and Marwood Hill Gardens. Barnstaple, North Devon's regional centre and primary market town, lies about 4 miles to the south and houses the area's main business, commercial, entertainment and shopping venues. The North Devon Leisure Centre and Tarka Tennis Centre, both in Barnstaple, provide many indoor pursuits. Cinemas and live theatres are available in Barnstaple and Ilfracombe, whilst other sporting and leisure pursuits are close to hand including golf at Landkey, Ilfracombe and Saunton. North Devon's famous coastline is within easy reach and provides excellent sandy surfing beaches, including the favoured resorts of Croyde and Woolacombe. A short driving distance gives access to the North Devon Link Road leading to Junction 27 of the M5, where there is also access to Tiverton Parkway Train Station

DESCRIPTION

Chapel Cottage presents painted rendered elevations with some double glazed windows beneath a slate roof. As the name suggests the property was formally a Methodist chapel with adjoining cottage but was re-modelled as a dwelling incorporating both elements around 2008. The Chapel section is Grade II Listed as being of architectural and historical importance and there are many notable original features still in evidence, skilfully combined with quality 21st century refinements to make a unique and interesting home which is presented to a high standard. The property is considered to be perfect for a main principal residence but would be also ideal as a second home/UK base/holiday let or a combination of such uses. Externally there is a pretty courtyard to front, a decent sized cottage garden to rear which backs on to farm land and boasts a large summerhouse suitable for use as home office/studio etc. Across the lane is a private parking bay. This is certainly a property that needs to be viewed internally to be fully appreciated.
