SITUATION & AMENITIES

Lee is a small coastal village, quietly tucked away in a deep combe, on the dramatic North Devon coastline, often referred to as 'Fuchsia Valley' due to its maritime but sheltered climate. Lee and nearby Lincombe account for just over 100 properties and boast a Church, Village Hall and The Grampus Public House which also serves food. The beach and bay itself is within a healthy walk and the multitude of splendid, contrasting local walks stem from the village, most are well sign posted and vary in type and length. The bustling village of Woolacombe with its three-mile-long sandy beach is a short drive. Further afield Croyde Bay, Putsborough and Saunton Sands are all ideal for surfing and bathing. Exmoor is also easily accessible with its beautiful rugged coastline and dramatic scenery, open moorland and wooded valleys. Barnstaple, North Devon's regional centre is within half an hour by car and provides a comprehensive range of business and leisure facilities. From the town there is direct access onto the A361 North Devon Link Road, providing easy access to Tiverton Parkway railhead (London Paddington in just over two hours) and beyond to the M5 Motorway. The nearest town is at Ilfracombe which is around three miles. There are local state schools and the renowned West Buckland Private School with local pick up points. Both Exeter and Bristol International airports are within two hours drive.

DIRECTIONS

Approaching Lee Bay from the Ilfracombe direction, pass through Lincombe. Follow the road down towards the bay, you will eventually come to a bend in the road and the start of the land is immediately after a track on this bend. The access is further down the lane on the left-hand side. The property directly opposite is known as 'St Eloi'. If you reach The Coach House on the left-hand side you have gone too far.
