SITUATION

2 Palms Wood lies on the northern edge of Braunton, where Corilhead Road meets the A361 and within walking distance of the village centre which is about half a mile to the south. The village of Knowle is within walking distance and Barnstaple is about 6.5 miles to the south-east.

The beaches of Saunton, Croyde, Putsborough and Woolacombe are all within easy reach and the Exmoor National Park is a short drive away.

DESCRIPTION

The woodland is known as 2 PALMS WOOD and is a pretty deciduous wood on a north-west facing slope and totals approximately 1.57 acres (0.63 hectares).

It is an attractive small wood positioned between Corilhead Road and the A361 and has been managed by the current owners as a conservation area for wildlife and plants with bluebells, primroses, daffodils and wild garlic evident during the Spring months.

The ferns, ivy, holly trees, rosehips and wild honeysuckles are well established and the mature tree species include oak, beech, sycamore, ash, hazelnut, hawthorn and chestnut.

Young trees include sweet chestnut, silver birch, apple and pear and soft fruits growing within the wood include tayberries, raspberries and blackberries.

The woodland may also suit those interested in wood-turning or a charcoal or firewood enterprise, subject to the required consents being obtained.

2 PALMS WOOD is also a recognised address by Google maps.
