DESCRIPTION

A fine example of a 4 storey Georgian townhouse circa. 1807 with an adjoining cottage, the accommodation is presented to a high standard, and has been sympathetically modernised in the current owners 18 year tenure to combine quality contemporary refinements without affecting the integrity of the original building and features. The accommodation is bright, spacious and versatile, and is currently run as a 10 bedroom boutique hotel which could be altered to extend the restaurant and bar facilities (subject to consent) to generate further income. The interconnecting cottage is a real asset for those looking for a home and income. Any change of use may require planning permission, please note the property is Grade II listed, as being of architectural and historical interest.
