SITUATION & AMENITIES

Brendon is near the Northern coast of Exmoor National Park in the valley which shares its name, well known to readers of Lorna Doone as the picturesque setting for R.D.Blackmore's classic adventure. Also nearby are Oare Church, Malmsmead and Robbers Bridge, which also feature primarily throughout the book. Stag Hunters Inn is within a short level walk. The twin villages of Lynton and Lynmouth are about 4 miles and, as well as their scenic cliffs and historic harbour, they offer a good range of shops, pubs, restaurants, primary school, library and even cinema. Exmoor National Park offers over 260 square miles of dramatic scenery including some of Britain's highest cliffs, steep wooded valleys, rolling pasture and mile after mile of open moorland, a haven for a wide range of wildlife including deer, Exmoor ponies, buzzards and other birds of prey. Exmoor's reputation of one of the finest areas of England for those interested in walking and riding is richly deserved. We understand that all main supermarkets deliver to the area. It is about a 50 minute drive to Taunton where trains to London take 1 hour 50 minutes. The Regional centre of Barnstaple is about 45 minutes by car. The surfing beaches of Woolacombe, Saunton and Croyde are all within the hour. For experienced surfers, Lynmouth also offers a superb break, under the right conditions. The nearest international airports are at Bristol and Exeter.

DESCRIPTION

This fine country home presents elevations of stone and painted render, with double glazed windows, all beneath a slate roof. We understand that the core of the property may well be at least 100 years old, and that an in-keeping extension was added in the early 2000s. The property now provides deceptively generous and very adaptable accommodation, which is well presented and would be ideal as one large family house for dual occupation or home and income use, as it has previously been operated as a B&B. Alternatively, the house is equally suitable as a second home or holiday let, given the amount of bedroom accommodation and potential income. Other notable features include: the rather pretty detached period stone barn, which currently provides garaging, workshops and garden/log storage but may possibly lend itself to conversion to ancillary accommodation, holiday let etc, subject to any necessary planning permission being obtained (we understand that a barn diagonally across the road has achieved consent for holiday use in recent times). The lovely mature gardens have been a labour of love for the existing owners and these back directly onto the East Lyn river, which is not only beautiful but will undoubtedly be of interest to anglers. The property has been realistically priced for early sale; there is no upward chain and the remainder of the existing contents could potentially be purchased by separate negotiation if required. This is property which certainly needs to be viewed internally to be fully appreciated.

OUTSIDE

The house is approached on foot via a wrought iron pedestrian gate, opening to a crazy paved pathway flanked by lawns leading to the front door. There is gated vehicular access with parking and a turning area, leading to the DETACHED STONE BARN, which provides – on the ground floor: SINGLE GARAGE, 2 STABLES and 2 STORAGE ROOMS, with a former hayloft above and power and light connected. There is a concealed oil storage tank. Between the riverside terrace and the vegetable garden, there is a GREENHOUSE. At the far end of the property, accessed from the lane outside by a pair of wooden 5-bar gates is a second OUTBUILDING. This consists of 2 concrete block STABLES, a large GARAGE and CARPORT of timbered frame with corrugated iron panels. The timber framed portion of this building needs repair and/or rebuilding, subject to planning permission. The gardens and grounds compliment the house and amount to approximately 0.8 of an acre. These are laid to sweeping lawns, interspersed with mature specimen plants, shrubs and trees. The house is central to the plot, with a good distance between it and either neighbour.

SERVICES

Mains electricity and water. Drainage is to a new digester tank installed in 2023. Oil fired central heating. According to Ofcom broadband is available in the area. Mobile signal is unlikely from any network provider. For more information please see the Ofcom website: checker.ofcom.org.uk

DIRECTIONS

what3words/////limelight.glares.galloped

From Lynmouth take the A39 eastward up Countisbury Hill towards Minehead. After passing the Blue Ball Inn take the next turn right signposted 'Brendon'. Descend into the village, and as you drop down into the bottom of the valley, cross the bridge and at the next junction bear left. Continue up this lane for 200 yards and the property will be found on the left-hand side, identified by our For Sale board.
