SITUATION

Seymour Cottage is situated in the village of Chittlehampton. The village offers local amenities of village shop and post office, popular public house, primary school and church whilst to the east and easily accessible is the local market town of South Molton, with a further range of shops, facilities and amenities including schooling and banking.

To the south west and approximately two miles distant is the village of Umberleigh, with primary school and public house, whilst to the north east and approximately eight miles is the regional centre of Barnstaple with its main shopping, business and commercial venues.

A number of sporting and leisure pursuits are close at hand. The North Devon Leisure Centre at Barnstaple provides many indoor pursuits and local golf is available at Landkey, High Bickington or Chittlehamholt with other clubs within reasonable distance. Live theatre is at Barnstaple and Torrington. North Devon's excellent coastline, easily accessible from the property, provides water sport opportunities and walking country in abundance.

The North Devon link road is approximately four miles to the north, which links either to Barnstaple or South Molton and Tiverton in the east with its junction on the M5 motorway and station on the Paddington line. A local rail link is available at Umberleigh on the Barnstaple to Exeter (Tarka Line).

DIRECTIONS

From South Molton take the B3227 signposted Umberleigh and Torrington and continue along this road towards Chittlehampton. Pass the first three turnings to Chittlehampton and take the fourth turning right at Homedown Cross. Proceed into the village turning right at Townsend Cross. Continue through the village, passing Chittlechatter Stores on the right hand side. The property will be found after a short distance on the left hand side.
