SITUATION

Lapwing Cottage is situated on the fringe of the highly sought after coastal village of Instow in a fantastic elevated position, enjoying far reaching waterside views and ideally situated to walk to the beach, Tarka Trail and the amenities that Instow has to offer. The coastal village of Instow is highly desirable with popular sandy beach and the North Devon yacht club, where boats may be launched and moorings are available. This yacht club has a very good membership and more than 550 members sailing cruisers, day boats, power boats, catamarans and dinghies. Amenities at Instow include local shops with delicatessen, post office and café, hotel, primary school and a variety of pubs and restaurants. There is also a good range of transport opportunities via regular bus routes and the ferry to Appledore across the estuary. The port and market town of Bideford is about 3 ½ miles and offers a wider range of amenities, the sandy beach of Westward Ho! is a further few miles away and backs on to the Northam Burrows country park and Royal North Devon Golf Club. There is also access to the South West Coastal footpath which offers superb coastal walks and stunning vistas of the rugged coastline. The Regional centre of Barnstaple is about 6 miles and offers the area's main business, commercial, leisure and shopping venues. Secondary schools/colleges and further afield there are reputable private schools at West Buckland [about 25 minutes by car], with local pick up points as well as Blundells at Tiverton or Kingsley in Bideford. From Barnstaple there is access to the North Devon Link Road which, eventually leads through to Junction 27 of the M5 Motorway in about 45 minutes. There is also access there to Tiverton parkway where London can be reached in just over 2 hours. North Devon's famous surfing beaches at Saunton [also with championship golf course], Croyde, Putsborough and Woolacombe are 30/40 minutes, as is Exmoor.

DIRECTIONS

Leaving Instow, in the direction of Barnstaple, after a short distance bear right sign posted Rectory Lane, which eventually leads up to the village primary school, continue on this road, pass Old Rectory Close on your left and take the next private drive on the left, shared by Cartlands and the neighbouring property beyond.
