Croyde has become internationally renowned for its superb surfing beach which has hosted numerous, top ranking surfing competitions. The village is also one of the West Country's most popular areas in which to live or holiday, consistently featured in the National Press and holiday/property programmes. The village offers an eclectic mix of picture postcard cottages nestling next to contemporary homes as well as a good range of local shopping facilities and amenities. The property is ideally situated to explore the nearby beaches and coastline of Ilfracombe, Lee, Putsborough, Saunton (also with championship golf course), Woolacombe and Exmoor with its rocky coastline. The nearby larger village of Braunton provides a wide range of local amenities to include post office, banking facilities, health centre, primary school, senior school, pubs, restaurants, library and a good range of shops. North Devon's regional centre of Barnstaple is about 10 miles and houses the area's main business, commercial, entertainment and shopping venues. The North Devon Link Road can be accessed at Barnstaple and provides a link to the M5 at Tiverton, Junction 27 where Tiverton Parkway Station has a regular mainline service to London, Paddington, in just over 2 hours. The nearest airports are at Bristol or Exeter. Croyde and its neighbouring North Devon surfing beaches, are the nearest in the south west to London, the south east and the Midlands and only about 45 miles from the M5. The village lies on the South West Coast Path near to Baggy Point which is owned by the National Trust. It also lies within the North Devon coastal area of outstanding natural beauty
