SITUATION & AMENITIES

Lee is a small coastal village, quietly tucked away in a deep combe, on the dramatic North Devon Coastline, often referred to as 'Fuchsia Valley' due to its maritime but sheltered climate. Lee and nearby Lincombe account for just over 100 properties and boast a church, village hall, gallery and The Grampus public house which also serves food. The beach and bay itself are within a short walk and a multitude of splendid contrasting local walks stem from the village - most of which are well signposted and vary in type and length. Lee Bay is within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. We understand that in the Winter when the leaves are off the trees, there is a glimpse of sea. The bustling village of Woolacombe, with its 3-mile-long sandy beach, is a short drive. Further afield are the other famous surfing resorts of Croyde Bay, Putsborough and Saunton Sands (also with championship golf course). Exmoor is also easily accessible with its beautiful rugged coastline and dramatic scenery, open moorland and wooded valleys. Barnstaple, North Devon's Regional Centre is within half an hour by car, and provides a comprehensive range of business and leisure facilities. From the town there is direct access on to the A361 North Devon Link Road, providing easy access to Tiverton Parkway Railhead (London, Paddington 2 hours) and beyond to the M5 Motorway.

DESCRIPTION

A freehold car park, large enough to accommodate 3-4 vehicles, with in and out access gates from the lane, which is the main artery through the village.
