DESCRIPTION

Located within one of Chester's most desirable areas, offering an abundance of character and charm, this traditional 1930's period semi-detached home has the benefit of gas central heating and partial double glazing. Offering any prospective purchaser the opportunity to modernise and improve the current accommodation to provide a definitive family living space. The internal accommodation comprises, an entrance hall, downstairs W.C, living room, dining room, a breakfast room, and kitchen. Leading off the first floor is a shower room and three bedrooms. A stone pathway and tarmac driveway leads to the front door, in front of the property is a low maintenance golden gravel and shrub front garden. A driveway continues to the side of the property leading to a detached garage. Timber gated side access leads to a predominantly lawned private rear garden, surround by fence panels and woodland beyond the border.

LOCATION

Hoole has fast become one of Chester's most sought after suburbs and demand for the area is high. There is so much to offer just within the immediate locality from boutique shops to bars and award winning restaurants. The City centre is within walking distance offering a wider range of shopping and leisure facilities. Hoole's character and charm comes from a great deal of Victorian style properties. Now known as 'Notting Hoole'. The name says it all. For travel the property is within a mile or so of the M53 motorway and Chester Station is within walking distance for travel both to London and the other major cities across the North West. Could we get anymore central? Location is everything!
