A delightful Grade II listed, semi detached character cottage with plenty of charm and kerb appeal, offers two good sized bedrooms and large landscaped rear garden. The cottage enjoys a central location within the sought after and desirable village of Okeford Fitzpaine. This picturesque village is surrounded by the beautiful Blackmore Vale countryside and boasts a shop/post office, public house and church. About four miles away is Sturminster Newton, which offers a range of facilities. We believe that the cottage dates to the 17th century and has been the much cherished and enjoyed home for our sellers over the last four and half years. During this time the property has been exceptionally well maintained and is decorated throughout in Farrow and Ball paint. The large garden has also had the advantage of some landscaping. This lovely cottage combines traditional old world charm with modern day expectation and is fitted with gas fired central heating, country style kitchen units and stylish contemporary shower room suite. The property retains many character features, such as the inglenook fireplace with Bressumer Beam and bread oven, exposed rafters, beams and floorboards plus pane glass windows with deep sills. There is also a porthole window to the side, situated in the sitting room, which is a particular feature of the cottage. A visit is imperative to truly appreciate what this special cottage has to offer, not just for the internal space but also for the outside space, which catches one by surprise! An early viewing is suggested to avoid missing out on this beautiful 'Chocolate Box' Cottage.

In brief, the ground floor accommodation consists of welcoming entrance hall, sitting room with inglenook fireplace and porthole window, kitchen, which is fitted with country style units and some built-in appliances and opens to the garden/dining room.
