

Grove Lane, Stalbridge

UNEXPECTEDLY RE-AVAILABLE This enchanting 17th-century detached Grade II listed cottage is a rare opportunity to own a piece of history in the heart of Dorset's smallest town and with countryside nearby. Originally two properties, it has been historically and sympathetically combined to create over 2,000 sq. ft. of beautifully presented living space spread over three floors, blending period charm with modern convenience.

The ground floor welcomes you with three versatile reception rooms. The triple-aspect sitting room, bathed in natural light, features a bay window, window seats and a magnificent inglenook fireplace with a wood burner—perfect for cosy evenings. The dining room exudes warmth with its oak flooring and another striking inglenook fireplace and is ideal for entertaining or enjoying family meals.. The flexible study/playroom offers a quiet retreat for work or play and the country-style kitchen, with bespoke units and Aga offers plenty of room for meal preparation and space for breakfast.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with three spacious double bedrooms, including a principal suite with its own en-suite, and a large single bedroom, plus the family bathroom completes this inviting living space.

Outside, the magic continues. Set within half an acre, the property boasts a picturesque garden with plenty of space for children and pets—a true haven for outdoor enthusiasts and nature lovers. Additional features include outbuildings, a car barn, and ample parking, providing practicality alongside its undeniable charm.

Located in the sought-after town of Stalbridge, this exceptional home offers the tranquillity of countryside living while being just a short walk from local amenities, including shops, cafés, and schools. This property is truly a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to embrace the best of Dorset's heritage and beauty. Don't miss your chance to call it home
