Kingston Lane Hazelbury Bryan

Offers In Excess Of £550,000

Boasting an elevated position and taking in some splendid views over the Blackmore Vale countryside is this recently refurbished detached home with three double bedrooms and enjoying a quiet lane side situation in this popular Dorset village. Over the last few years the property has been completely transformed from a dated bungalow into a stunning and contemporary home that will certainly bring a smile to those that view and will satisfy many potential buyers' needs. The property offers a bright and free flowing layout with the principal reception room running the whole width and revelling in those fabulous views with accommodation amounting to around 1740 sq ft (161 sq m). The property has benefited new drainage, electrics, garage roof, bathroom suites and kitchen units as well as a new boiler and central heating system. The property is also fully insulated and has triple glazing to the front, double glazing to the rear, 'K' rendering and outside electric and water. A first floor was added to create a wonderful main bedroom suite with en-suite bathroom and dressing room plus full height windows in the bedroom, which take full advantage of the view. Viewing is essential to truly appreciate this unique and stylish home.

In brief, the accommodation consists of good sized welcoming reception hall, sitting room with fireplace, fabulous combined family and dining room with stunning views over the Blackmore Vale countryside and kitchen fitted with plenty of cupboards and some integrated appliances. In addition, there are two double bedrooms, both with fitted wardrobes, utility, bathroom fitted with a stylish suite and a utility room. On the first floor there is the main suite with separate dressing area and bathroom. Outside, there is parking for about three cars, good sized garage and front and rear gardens.
