United Reform Church, Queen Street, Castle Heddingham, CO9 3HA.

The Church building dates from 1842 and is Grade II* Listed. It is arranged over two floors with an adjacent single-storey meeting room along the western elevation. The building appears to have been extended at a later date to allow the installation of two rear stone staircases and an additional gallery which now houses the Church organ.

Outside, the surrounding land extends to approximately 0.24 acres. The rear boundary is defined by a wrought iron and timber boarded fence. The side boundaries are marked by brick walls and the property adjoins residential homes to the north and south.

Permission has been granted for a change of use from a place of worship (D1) to a residential building, alongside planning permission for a conversion to an impressive and unique four-bedroom detached home.
