The front door opens to a lobby, beyond which is an attractive sitting room which has an inglenook fireplace and beams to the ceiling. Adjacent to this is a spacious dining room with a dual aspect which benefits from further character features to include an impressive inglenook fireplace and beams to the wall and ceiling. Beyond the sitting room is a useful study which has a view to the courtyard and beams to the ceiling, beyond which is a snug with a door to the south facing decked area and stairs rising to the first floor.

There is a stylish gally kitchen which is fitted with a range of floor and wall mounted units with twin circular sinks and an attractive blue AGA cooker, as well as plumbing for a dishwasher. Adjacent to this is a useful utility room which has a brick floor and extensive storage. There is a well appointed ground floor bathroom which has a fully vaulted ceiling with a Velux window and is fully tiled and fitted with a white matching suite with shower above the bath. The first floor is equally charming and is accessed via two staircases with a principal bedroom being situated in the older part of the building which has wide oak floor boards, a part vaulted ceiling and oak framework on display. The door opens to a compact en-suite shower room with a matching white suite. The second bedroom has a part vaulted ceiling and views to the entrance of the castle and two built in storage cupboards, beyond which a door leads to the third and fourth bedroom both of which share a practical en-suite cloak room.

Outside

The property is approached via a paved drive leading to a set of wrought iron gates beyond, which is an extensive area of parking. Immediately to the rear of the property is a decked entertaining terrace which is positioned to take advantage of the afternoon and evening sun. Beyond this are large expanses of lawn along with a further raised terrace adjacent to which is a useful outside office building which is ideal for those who work at home. There is a further storage shed which is equipped with power and light to the south side.

Location

Castle Hedingham, named after its famous Norman Keep, is a very pretty village containing a wealth of fine period houses. Amenities include a village shop, post office, St Nicholas parish church, 2 pubs, tea-room, restaurant, tennis courts, doctors’ surgery, a cricket field and playing fields. The nearby market towns of Halstead, Sudbury and Braintree provide for more extensive needs including a commuter line from Sudbury. Witham and Kelvedon both 15 miles and Braintree all provide rail links to London Liverpool Street.
