SITUATION (CHULMLEIGH)

Chulmleigh is a small but busy town set in the heart of rural Devon. It is the centre for an active and friendly community and offers a good range of local shops including a bakery, dairy, newsagent, florists, hairdressers etc, along with the excellent Chulmleigh Academy offering schooling from the ages of 3 to 16 years of age, health centre, dental surgery, Post Office, churches, library, two public houses and a community run Sports Centre and a short 18 hole golf course. The market town of South Molton to the north and Crediton to the south both offer a more comprehensive range of facilities and the local railway station at Eggesford, 2 miles, provides a rail link between Exeter and Barnstaple. Road link is via the A377 or the North Devon Link Road, which can easily be accessed at South Molton. Barnstaple, North Devon's regional centre, and the Cathedral and University city of Exeter both offer the wide range of shopping, amenities and facilities one would expect from the county's principal town and city. Tiverton, the M5 motorway at Junction 27 and Tiverton Parkway station, which provides a fast Intercity rail link to London Paddington, are both approximately forty-five minutes drive. There is also an international airport at Exeter.

There are excellent recreational and sporting facilities in the area with a range of Leisure Centres at South Molton, Tiverton, Crediton and Barnstaple, near-by tennis courts and clubs, local rugby, football and cricket clubs, fishing in the rivers Taw and Torridge, further near-by golf courses at Libbaton, High Bullen and Down St Mary, excellent walking and riding in all directions, racecourses at Haldon Exeter and Newton Abbot, and sailing and watersports on North Devons scenic and rugged coastline, being approximately three-quarters of an hours drive.

DESCRIPTION

Wallingbrook Lodge, formerly the dining hall and dormitory of Wallingbrook School founded in 1889, is a virtually detached character cottage located towards the edge of Chulmleigh overlooking the Golf Course and Little Dart Valley beyond, yet within easy, level walking distance of the town centre. The property is of traditional stone construction with brick quoins around the windows under a pitched slate roof with colour washed elevations and partial uPVC double glazing throughout. Internally the exceptionally spacious accommodation has been the subject of much improvement by the current owners including refitting the Kitchen and Bathroom suites, installing oil fired central heating, as well as tastefully redecorating and recarpeting throughout. The rooms are arranged over two floors and briefly comprise a n Entrance Hall, a downstairs Cloakroom, an Inner Hall, a large dual aspect Sitting Room, a Study/Hobbies Room and a large Kitchen/Dining Room, whilst on the first floor there is a Master Double Bedroom with En-Suite Shower Room, two further double bedrooms that share a Jack and Jill' Bathroom. Outside the house is approached over a part shared drive giving access to a brick paved parking area allowing enough space for one car and access to a raised timber decked area which is south facing and overlooks the golf course and open countryside beyond. The decking wraps around the front and side of the house and gives access to the Front Door into the Entrance Hall.
