24 Tartar Road

Cobham, Cobham

An immaculately presented mid terrace family home located close to the centre of Cobham Village. The three bedroom property offers well balanced accommodation over three floors.

The ground floor has a comfortable living room which with the bay window and brick fireplace has some nice character. To the rear of the property is the kitchen breakfast room with enough room for a family dining table and that leads out via sliding doors to the south west facing garden which is easily maintained with its artificial grass and patio.

The bedrooms are spread across the top two floors with two double bedrooms and the family bathroom being located on the first floor and the final bedroom being on the top floor of the property which has access to its own en-suite.

The property has off street parking to the front and has a storage shed to the rear of the garden.
