A lovely one-bedroom retirement apartment, set on the first floor of this popular development within West End Village, close to both Esher and Hersham. Internally this is a lovely home with good size rooms and a nice neutral decor. The bedroom is a good double room. There are two cupboards in the hallway giving plenty of storage space. The bathroom is wet room style with easily accessible features. The living room is a lovely room with dual aspect windows giving plenty of natural light. The kitchen and living room are separate rooms and the kitchen is a nice size with plenty of worktop and storage. The block itself is well maintained and managed and designed for the over 60's. There are pleasant communal areas and gardens. There is also a residents car park also with visitor spaces. Ideally located within West End Village just moments from local greenery, the popular Garsons Farm and Prince of Wales pub. A beautiful location with everything on your doorstep. EPC Rating C.
