14 Coppin Street

Deal

A most attractive Grade II listed Georgian cottage, exuding character and charm, located within the Middle Street Conversation area, just a stone's throw from the seafront.

Situation

Coppin Street runs from Middle Street to the seafront and is a picturesque and highly sought after location at the heart of Deal's Conservation Area; a neighbourhood characterised by narrow streets running up to the seafront, renowned for being awash with smugglers from as early as the 17th Century. The property is ideally located just a stroll from the high street, beach and all Deal has to offer. This traditional coastal town has a twist of the creative scene and a flourishing local community. It boasts an award winning high street with a pleasing mix of individual shops, restaurants, inns and cafes. It also has an attractive pebble seafront, Grade II Listed pier and historic Tudor Castle. There is an ideal opportunity for many outdoor pursuits together with a two mile promenade perfect for cycling and walking. The mainline railway station is a short walk away, and offers a regular service via the high speed Javelin link to London St Pancras.

The Property

Number 14 is excellently positioned within the well regarded Middle Street Conservation Area just metres from the seafront offering one of a kind accommodation arranged over three floors with original features in keeping with its period and charm. Upon entering you are welcomed into the spacious sitting room with large sash window to front, original wood panelling and spectacular centralised cast iron fireplace with door leading to a convenient utility/study room. Stairs from the sitting room lead down to the kitchen/diner which is of a considerable size with farmhouse style units, ample storage, beautiful wooden beams and window allowing for natural light. The first floor comprises of a family bathroom and two bedrooms, whereby the master enjoys access onto the private south facing roof terrace overlooking the neighbouring rooftops. Overflow accommodation in the form of a converted attic room provides a carpeted and heated space with lighting installed.

Outside

There is a South facing roof terrace with attractive views overlooking the rooftops. Residents and visitor parking permits are available from Dover District Council.
