18 Napchester Road

Whitfield, Dover

A deceptively spacious family residence with delightful gardens and useful outbuilding.

Situation

Located on the outskirts of Whitfield village, Napchester Road is a peaceful lane that offers convenient access to local amenities. These include a variety of shops, post office, public houses, along with primary and secondary schools. There are also superstores nearby, and a regular bus service provides transportation to the larger centre of Dover. Dover is a charming seaside town known for its stunning views of Dover Castle and the White Cliffs. The town also offers a stylish marina, a beautiful beach and promenade, and a bustling working port. Whitfield benefits from the Eastry bypass and has excellent connections to the A2, which provides a direct route to the historic city of Canterbury. For those who rely on public transportation, there is a local train station at Kearsney, while Dover and Martin Mill stations connect to mainline services, including the Javelin High-Speed link to London St Pancras.

The Property

No: 18 presents itself as an unassuming gem, a modern detached family home that subtly defies expectations. Deceptively spacious, this residence effortlessly blends comfort and functionality, revealing ample living space and an expansive studio brimming with untapped potential. Nestled in a tranquil locale, this chain-free abode offers more than meets the eye. Its unpretentious exterior belies the accommodation inside. The ground floor quietly impresses with a spacious sitting room, adorned by the gentle warmth of a gas fire. Opening into a separate dining area, it seamlessly flows into a modern fitted kitchen equipped with integrated appliances. Three understated double bedrooms and a family bathroom, featuring a separate shower and bath, complete the ground-level narrative. Ascending to the first floor, two additional double bedrooms await, one with its own ensuite sanctuary. These rooms are gently separated by a lounge area, a discreet yet invaluable addition, offering a flexible space for various receptions.

Outside

At the forefront, No: 18 welcomes with a discreet expanse of block paving, generously offering ample off-road parking—an unassuming prelude to the property's exterior charm. Along the side, a subtle gateway reveals a verdant lawn garden, a quiet haven of greenery. An impressive decked area provides a serene vantage point to survey the tranquil rear garden. Toward the garden's conclusion lies a spacious outbuilding—a versatile space seamlessly suited for a home office or gym, embodying the subtle luxury of multifunctionality. Attached to this structure is an unobtrusive storage area, discreetly accessible through its separate entrance—an understated yet practical addition, adding a layer of convenience to this outdoor sanctuary. In its entirety, the garden quietly beckons, offering a harmonious blend of simplicity and utility, ready to adapt to the nuances of outdoor living.
