The Property

Deceptive from the exterior, built circa 1960's, Leyswood provides spacious accommodation set comfortably within a lovely plot. Extended by the existing owners the property provides an appreciable level of accommodation and benefits from an array of solar panels as well as double glazed windows and gas central heating. The ground floor has a wonderfully bright open character with space aplenty. On entering the entrance vestibule and reception hall on the left hand side is a superb living room extending the full depth of the property, with feature fireplace and multi-fuel burner installed. To the rear of the property lies a dual aspect dining room and tucked away to the front is a separate snug. The kitchen/breakfast room is substantial with a number of high and low level cupboard units, integrated cooking appliances and access to a rear utility room. This in turn has access to the garden and an integral doorway to the double garage. A useful ground floor cloakroom, off the hallway, compliments this floor level. The upper floor level benefits from a generous landing, with ample space for a desk, which provides access to five double bedrooms, two with ensuite shower rooms and a spacious family bathroom. A sixth single bedroom is presently used as a study and the majority of bedrooms all have fitted wardrobes and/or wash hand basins.

Set back from the road with a block paved driveway provides off road parking and access to twin doors, opening to an integral double garage. To the front elevation are mature clematis and climbing plants and well screened borders with access to both side elevations leading to rear pedestrian access. The stunning back garden is a magnificent feature of the property with generous grounds largely laid to lawn with sweeping borders along its boundary filled with shrubs and flowers giving interest all year round. A wide patio stretches across the rear elevation of the house and a selection of trees to borders include apple, ash and oak. Useful garden sheds, wood store and summerhouse lie to the rear.
