Rarely available seafront apartment with stunning uninterrupted views across the Channel.

Situation

Granville Road is a highly sought after residential location at the top of St Margarets Bay which largely comprises individual detached properties, the majority of which enjoy stunning sea views. The peaceful private road leads up to the Dover Patrol Memorial and through to acres of neighbouring National Trust countryside. It is recognised as an area of Outstanding Natural Beauty with a network of footpaths running along the cliff tops. The village is steeped in history and is located at one of the closest points to the Continent. The sheltered beach includes a popular cafe and The Coastguard Inn.
